

Chez Roux

THE LANGHAM
LONDON

Chez Roux draws its inspiration from Chef Michel's cherished memories of his upbringing: his rural Kent childhood in the 1960s, growing up at the Fairlawne estate. During this time, his father, Albert Roux OBE, served as a private chef for the Cazalet family, and conceptualised the inaugural menus of Le Gavroche. Our menu has been meticulously crafted with these influences in mind, showcasing historical British favourites and traditional French culinary techniques; a fusion of British classics with the finesse of traditionally French methods.

In the words of Chef Michel himself: "Many of the recipes that graced tables in the 60s have faded into obscurity, yet the essence of those dishes holds a special place in my heart – with a hint of nostalgia and boundless excitement, I invite you to savour the menu at Chez Roux at The Langham."

Begin your evening with a welcome sablé, in honour of Mrs. Bradbrook, wife of the butler at the Fairlawne estate, and served to generations of guests at Le Gavroche.
